Case Study 2: The ‘Johnson’ house, 451 Beach Road, Beaumaris

This house is one of the few heritage listed mid-century modern houses in Beaumaris. The house was designed by prominent architects, Mockridge Stahle and Mitchell, was built in 1954.

By time the house was sold in 2010 it had, unfortunately, fallen into major disrepair.

PROPOSED RESIDENCE AT BEAUMARIS FOR G. A. JOHNSON ESQ.

The images show how a thorough restoration and renovation can result in a home that is now ideal for a modern family.

The façade was retained, windows and rotting timber work repaired.

Inside, the house was re-configured to suit modern life, with the kitchen moved to the front of the house. Small rooms were opened up to become a large master bedroom, with walk in robe and ensuite.
The house was filled in at ground level to provide childrens bedrooms, laundry bathrooms and a multi purpose room.
